I. READING COMPREHENSION : (8 marks)

Read the text, and then answer the questions.

- ① Excessive Internet use by children can lead to violence and health problems due to lack of physical activity. Children may also become less able to communicate well with friends and family.
- ② Timothy was twelve years old when his parents bought him a computer for his room thinking it would be helpful to him with his homework, as he was entering junior high. Timothy took to the internet immediately and soon discovered chatrooms and emails. At first, Timothy's parents watched over his shoulder frequently to make sure he was using the internet safely. After a little while, though, they stopped monitoring his online habits.
- ③ Soon problems arose. Timothy began to spend all of his free time in his bedroom. He would turn unfriendly whenever his parents asked him to spend some time with them. Timothy became an Internet addict. His grades dropped from A to D and he got angry whenever he was away from his computer.

Katie Gillard has always wanted to be a truck driver. When she passed her first driving test, she was the only girl. People laughed (at / of / on) her because there were no women (doing / done / do) this job. They said 'Oh! You're a girl and you're driving a big lorry!'

A lot of teasing went on her where she (is working / was working / will work), Katie was happy doing her job. She said 'there are a lot more things to (forget / enjoy / avoid) about being a lorry driver.' People think that women are going to be a minority in this industry. It's a job made only for men. (But / And / Because), Katie believes that there is no reason women can't do it.
